FOOTBALL COMES TO FRONT AGAIN

High School Boys Soon Will be Ready For Season.

Big League Seasons Are Coming to Close, but Interest in Sport Keeps Up.

GOSSIP OF GAMES ELSEWHERE.

Baseball clubs, leagues and associations like the Kitty are closing out business for the season and the players are fixing their batting eye on flannel underclothing in stead of high balls and fr shoots. To suit the taste of the strenuous football with its bruises and breaks will soon be on to relieve the monotony of sportdom and hospital. The Paducah youngster is not far behind the eastern lads and several football teams are being organized and put in shape for the season's going. The Paducah High school team will begin practice within a few days and already the candidates are limbering their muscles and dieting on rare beef and wheat bread.

CLOSES SUNDAY.

PHILIP H. HISEY DIES PEACEFULLY

Well Known Citizen Succumbs To Paralysis.

Confederate Veteran and Prominent in Local Affairs—Native of Virginia.

THREE CHILDREN SURVIVE.

Philip Storer Hisey, 74 years old, one of the oldest and most respected residents of the city, died at 3:30 o'clock this morning of paralysis, at the residence of his son-in-law, Dr. Lillard Sanders, 318 South Sixth street. It was a peaceful ending of one of the most useful lives in the city. Col. Hisey was born February 14, 1832, in Edinburg, Shenandoah county, Va. and during the war joined a Virginia company and went west. He later joined a Missouri company under Captain James McGhee and met his wife here during the war. Following the close of the war he came here and on February 17, 1876, married Miss Laura Hand, daughter of Henry Hand, Sr.

Col Hisey came of one of the best Virginia families, being the son of the Rev. Frederick Hisey a Moravian minister. He was in the grocery business in his early life here as bookkeeper for his father-in-law, and later went into politics. He was appointed constable and served for years in that capacity, holding the position until the infirmities prevented further service.

Col. Hisey was the youngest of nine children, and his only remaining brother died last year in Virginia. He leaves three children: Fred Hisey, Cairo; Mrs. Lillard Sanders, and Miss Hallie Hisey, of this city.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but the burial will be in charge of the James Walbert camp, Confederate veterans. The services will be at the residence, the Rev. T. J. Newell, officiating. The hour will probably be 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Woman's Kidney Troubles

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Especially Successful in Curing This Fatal Disease.

Mrs. J. W. Lang and Mrs. S. Frake

Of all the diseases known, with which women are afflicted, chronic kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless early and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Lydia E. Pinkham, early in her career, gave exhaustive study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—was careful to see that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was sure to control that fatal disease, woman's kidney troubles. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women, and thousands have been cured of serious kidney derangements by it. Derangements of the feminine organs quickly affect the kidneys, and when a woman has such symptoms as pain or weight in the loins, backache, bearing-down pains, scalding or burning sensations or deposits in the urine, unusual thirst, swelling of hands and feet, swelling under the eyes or sharp pains in the back, running through the groin, she may infer that her kidneys are affected and should lose no time in combating the disease with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the woman's remedy for woman's ills.

The following letters show how marvelously successful it is.

Mrs. Samuel Frake, of Prospect Plains, N. J., writes:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
I cannot thank you enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; a Woman's Remedy for Woman's ills.

I have been a great sufferer from kidney trouble, or any form of female weakness, are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women. Out of the great volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than likely she has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Needless Suffering

In young girls, is too often caused by the mothers' lack of knowledge of proper treatment at that time. "Mamma was almost crazy, to think of my sickness," writes Miss Hazel Upson, of 130 S. Fifth Street, De Kalb, Ill. "The best doctor in De Kalb gave me up and said I could not get well. I had been sick with a fever and never got over it, but brought me around all right. Before taking Cardui I had been out of order for six months, was weak, pale, wan and thin and hardly able to get around. A lady friend recommended Cardui and mamma got me a bottle, though she had very little hopes of its helping me, but praise God I had taken just three bottles when I was relieved and began to get well right off. Now I am feeling well. Mamma wants me to send you my picture to let you see how fat I am getting. Mamma and I are so thankful for the Wine of Cardui, and I will do all I can to let every suffering person know how much it has done for me." Cardui is a harmless vegetable medicine for women and girls, with a specific strengthening curative effect upon the female organs. For over half a century it has been in successful use and in that long trial has proved itself a safe, reliable remedy, for young and old. Try it.

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Relief
